

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION
ACCESS ADR PANEL MEMBERS

Ricardo Granderson (New York) has served as a mediator for more than eight years. He has mediated more than 100 employment and labor disputes in a variety of contexts for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, as well as contract matters in Small Claims Court and Lemon Law cases. Mr. Granderson serves as a consult specializing in ADR infrastructure design and the use of dispute resolution as a proactive business tool. He has taught ADR and Negotiation at the New York Institute of Technology and judged mediation competitions at Fordham University Law School. Mr. Granderson is currently associated with a 12,000 employee public agency where he successfully managed a Consent Decree compliance in a nine-year employment litigation. He is a member of the Employment Panel for the CPR Institute of Dispute Resolution, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and FINRA Dispute Resolution (formerly, National Association of Securities Dealers Dispute Resolution). Mr. Granderson has a J.D. from City University of New York Law School, a B.A. in Liberal Arts from Wesleyan University, Mediation Training at Columbia University Law School and Labor Relations Training from the Cornell University School of Labor Relations.