

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION
ACCESS ADR PANEL MEMBERS

Betty R. Widgeon (Michigan) was Chief Judge of the Washtenaw County Trial Court, 14A District Court, from 1994 to 1999. Judge Widgeon became an arbitrator and a mediator after leaving the bench. She serves as arbitrator and mediator on several national, state and local ADR panels and has arbitrated and mediated disputes in both the public and private sectors. Judge Widgeon has served as a neutral in a variety of disputes including absenteeism; callback pay, discrimination, disability benefits, discharge, discipline, drug/substance abuse, past practices, performance appraisal, safety/health conditions, sexual harassment, wages, work assignment, and work rules. She has a J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, a MAEd. in Counseling and a B.A. in English/ Sociology from Wake Forest University. She is a member of the State Bar of Michigan.